

New Link in BCC Auto Emails

We have added a new “Agent View in Matrix” link to the BCC Auto Emails. This link will allow you to access the listings for that Auto Email within Matrix, rather than in the Client Portal.

This link will only appear in the BCC Auto Emails; it will not be seen by clients or anyone in the CC line of the email.

Note: If you are already logged in to Matrix in your default browser, the link will take you directly to the listings for that Auto Email. If you are not already logged in, you’ll need to login first and then be taken to the listings.

The For Brokers page has been updated to remove the Goomezee ad, and instead display the logos for each of our REALTOR® Associations. The logos will take you to the website for that association. We’ve also included links to the newsletters for those associations that have one.
